Fr. Odo was baptized in the Spirit and became active in the Charismatic Renewal in 1977, while a seminarian in Rome. He is currently the Vocations Director for the Benedictines at Mount Angel Abbey. He has held this position 1997-2004 and 2008 to today. He also teaches the Novices, is an Adjunct Instructor for Mount Angel Seminary and has been leading Pilgrimages to the Holy Land and other places since 1984. He just returned from leading a group to the Holy Land, sponsored by the Mount Angel Institute and hopes to do more in the future.
