Undergirded by a unique background and experiences, Cardinal Francis E. George, O.M.I., offered the Church a one-of-a-kind leadership with his nuanced, insightful wisdom. Giving a model for the kind of Catholic living he proposed as a shepherd, through his wisdom and witness, Cardinal George advocated for a style of life called “simply Catholicism” — which he lived so thoroughly, and which, even after his death, still guides each of us today. Michael Heinlein, the author of the new book, Glorifying Christ: The Life of Cardinal Francis E. George, O.M.I., will be sharing with us some of the wonderful insights the great Cardinal Francis George embodied throughout his life as a devout Catholic and a shepherd.
